GIRL BOUND BY ROBBER.

Representating himself to be a real estate agent, a young man of businesslike appearance and well dressed gained access to the home of Summerfield McLean a wealthy Brooklyn publisher yesterday and while Miss Beatrice Masten, a younger sister of Mrs. McLean, was showing the man over the premises he suddenly overpowered her, bound her arms and legs with picture wire, tied a rag over her mouth and then leisurely searched the house for valuables. It was nearly an hour before the unconscious young woman was discovered. She was suffering so from shock that she was hardly able to tell what had happened. The room was in wild confusion, showing that the robber had searched everywhere for valuables. He got away with jewelry and silverware worth $1,000.

WOMAN IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

The climax of the suffragette campaign was reached in London last night, when an enormous mob hemmed in the houses of parliament and stopped traffic in all streets leading to Westminister. For more than three hours the crowds scuffled goodnaturedly with the police, interfered with theategoers, broke windows and generally disorganized things in the center of London. Mrs. Travers Symons, formerly secretary to James Keir Hardie, the socialist and independent member of parliament, reached the door of the house of commons by a ruse. The house was solemnly debating a bill to prevent children from cigarette smoking, when the woman dashed by the doorkeeper to a position in front of the speaker's chair and shouted shrilly, "Leave off discussing children and talk about women." Three officials seized Mrs. Symons and carried her out bodily. She was then led to the outer door and dismissed.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

THE BALKAN SITUATION.

Advices from French official source indicate that the danger point in the Balkans has shifted back to Bulgaria. While it is officially denied by Bulgarian officials that any ultimatum has been sent to Turkey regarding the recognition of her independence, there is reason to believe that Bulgaria is determined to make a move, if Turkey and the powers persist in their refusal to accept her independence as an accomplished fact.

It is believed that if the Bulgarian army crosses the Turkish frontier, Great Britain will land troops for the protection of Constantinople. The danger of a declaration of war from Servia is considered over for the present. The French government has decided to leave Servia's demand for compensation from Austria-Hungary to the consideration of the powers.

M. Stancioff, the diplomatic agent of Bulgaria in Paris, declared yesterday that the situation in Bulgaria was grave and tense.

ASSAULTED BY A NEGRO.

Miss Pearl Tucker, aged 16, while picking cotton in a field near her home in the vicinity of Charlotte, N. C., yesterday, was attacked by a negro in the woods near Concord. Pointing a pistol at her, the man told her he would kill her if she told of his crime, and disappeared after trying to mislead her as to his identity by saying his name was Henry Faggott.

Salisbury officers were notified, and, with the help of a posse of 700 citizens, which quickly was formed, a suspect was captured an hour after the crime was committed. He gave his name as Will Graham, but the girl was too nervous from the shock to say positively whether he was the assailant.

Police Chief Boger succeeded in getting the negro into an automobile, and, followed by a frenzied mob which had grown to 2,000, got his prisoner to a place of safety.

GRAHAM FLOUR just received by J. C. MILBURN.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 14, 1908.

GOVERNOR WILLSON of Kentucky has offered $500 reward for the apprehension and conviction of the gang of night riders who attacked a negro in his home in Hickman county last week, and slew him, his wife and two children. The governor also made an earnest appeal to the people of his state to "arise in their might" and put down such lawlessness. The governor said:

If two or three men had gone to this poor cabin and murdered this family, the crime would have shocked humanity with its revelation of incredible wickedness, brutality and dastardly cowardice. That a larger number—some 50 men—joined in such a crime, multiplies its cowardliness and wickedness fifty-fold and makes every member of the band guilty of murder in the first degree, the basest, wickedest and most cowardly, inhuman murder conceivable in mortal mind.

In further speaking of the crimes of the night riders Governor Willson says:

It is only one remove from civil war, and the very safety of our institutions and what we have of civilization is involved, and the only salvation for the home and honor and character of Kentucky is for the whole people to rise up in their might to save their liberty, uphold their law mercilessly, put down murder, arson, intimidation and proscription wherever they dare show themselves.

Governor Willson's course in taking the bull by the horns will be approved by all right-thinking people.

THE republicans are resorting to every possible means to maintain their supremacy which is threatened by the reaction which set in against them some time ago. The growing ranks of the democratic party and the success which has met the presidential candidate of the organization is not only causing the party in power uneasiness but great anxiety. Some of their speakers are going about the country insulting the intelligence of their hearers by endeavoring to make them believe Mr. Bryan is a dangerous man. James S. Sherman, the republican candidate for vice president in a speech at Orange, N. J., on Monday night (half of the audience being women) gave vent to the following:

Bryan is a more dangerous man, to my way of thinking, because he is sincere. If he were a faker I would not regard him as half so dangerous.

Secretary Garfield in a speech in Boston Monday night re-echoed the same in the following words:

Bryan is the greatest danger America has ever faced. He is the most dangerous citizen to this country today; he is fomenting strife and trouble; he is aligning class against class and men against men.

There is no need of comment on such wild ravings.

THE democratic rally at the Opera House last night was a clear manifestation of the continued loyalty of Alexandria toward the standard bearers of the party in the presidential campaign which is now reaching an acute stage. The remarks of Mr. Samuel G. Brent, who introduced Hon. H. St. George Tucker, were inspiring and aroused great enthusiasm. Mr. Tucker, who was the principal speaker of the evening, delivered one of his masterpieces. The clear and logical manner in which he handled the issues now before the country held his hearers spellbound, and the large audience drank in his words with an interest seldom manifest at political gatherings. His speech abounded in encouragement and the graphic manner in which he portrayed the political outlook and the prospects for the election of the democratic candidates sent enthusiasm into every soul present.

IN HIS speech in Chicago last Friday before the Lakes to Gulf Deep Waterways Association, Mr. Theodore P. Shonts, of New York, declared in favor of federal ownership of the railroads rather than commission rule. And many will agree with him. If all that is said of the abuses of railroad management were true they are not as mischievous and dangerous to the country as the existence of a partisan board of Interstate Commerce Commissioners under control of a president who does not scruple to use it for partisan ends. Witness the attempt of Commissioner Knapp to make a deal with the southern railroad companies to raise the rates of freight—after the November election. Not the least of the reforms promised by the election of Bryan is a complete reconstruction of the Roosevelt Interstate Commerce Commission.

THE New York health department reports a large increase in the number of deaths from heart disease as the result of the late baseball unpleasantness. What fools these mortals be!

EX-SENATOR CLARK, of Montana, is going to take the stump for Bryan. He says Bryan's election would stimulate business all over the country.

The new bill of lading will go into effect on 416 railroads on November 1.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.

Washington, Oct. 14.

Representative Brodhead, of Pennsylvania, talked with the president in the interest of five thousand unemployed iron workers in the Bethlehem Steel Works. The president agreed to meet a committee of the iron workers next Monday and discuss with them matters connected with governmental work.

The annual custom of the French government in presenting an edition de luxe of the French naval register to President was followed today.

The White House today is amused over a story published this morning crediting President Roosevelt with having just figured out that Taft's vote in the electoral college would reach 306.

Attorney General Bonaparte has been selected to introduce Judge William H. Taft to a Maryland audience at Baltimore Monday night.

"The conscience fund" of the postoffice department was today enriched to the extent of $1.50 from a woman, who writes that when she was postmaster at a small office 15 years ago, she appropriated the contents of a package addressed to a person who did not live at the place. "We just keep it," said the conscience stricken correspondent, "not realizing the sinfulness, and not sending it to the dead letter office as I should I now send $1 50 restitution money".

Postmaster General Meyer is the latest member of President Roosevelt's cabinet to announce his intention of taking the stump. He will speak at Fredericksburg, Va., Friday night, and address the republican club of the District here on Saturday night. Later, he will make a number of others speeches. It is likely that within a week, six of the nine cabinet officer will be performing active service for the national ticket. This shows how scared the administration has become.

Considerable mystery attaches to an advertisement printed in Metropolitan papers today, calling upon holders of stock in Bay State Gas Trinity Copper, Yukon gold; Nevada-Utah, and first National Copper, for information as to the methods and means by which they were induced to make the purchases. The advertisement bears the signature, "Congressional information bureau, Wash., D. C.," Claude Bennett, manager of the bureau, is out of the city today, and his secretary declined to state the purpose of the publication, or to disclose the names of the parties upon whose behalf it was made. "In fact," said the secretary, "we do not know the reason for the advertisement. We were simply instructed by our clients to get the information and turn it over to them." That an attack upon Thomas W. Lawson, promoter of the stocks in question, is contemplated by those responsible for the insertion of the advertisement is evident from its wording.

The Albert T. Patrick appeal case is expected to be heard shortly by the U. S. Supreme Court. Attorney Taylor, representing the state of New York, has secured permission to file a brief in opposition when the appeal is prosecuted. Patrick, who is now in Sing Sing, under sentence of life imprisonment for the killing of William Marsh Rice, a millionaire, eight years ago, and whose sentence of death was commuted, makes sensational charges against prison officials at Sing Sing in his appeal, declaring the prison is managed "with the intent and effect of injuring the convicts there confined, mentally, morally and physically."

The Virginia two-cent rate case was not reached in the Supreme Court yesterday nor is it possible to say when it will come up. Messrs A. C. Braxton, John W. Daniel and John Eggleston, counsel for the Corporation Commission, are here. Counsel for the railroads is headed by Alfred P. Thom, general counsel of the Southern Railway.

Rioting in London.

London, Oct. 14.—In one of the most desperate riots in the history of London a mob of suffragettes late this afternoon at the head of 100,000 of the unemployed are trying to break their way into the houses of parliament.

Hurled back time and again by the 4,000 foot and mounted police the women are fighting like furies, scratching, biting and stabbing the bluecoats with hat pins. In one of the most desperate attempts one suffragette battling like a demon fought her way clear through the police forces and actually reached the bar of the house before her progress was stayed.

Scores of accidents have already occurred and fainting women are sinking everywhere in the surging crowds, while the screams of the women and the deeper roars of the men roll in a mighty torrent of sound about the whole section of city. There is every probability that before the disturbance is quelled the loss of life will be heavy.

Still militant and boisterous after a night of rioting, a mob of suffragettes today repeatedly tried to storm the courtroom where the cases of the thirty-seven women arrested during yesterday's demonstration were called for trial.

Hundreds of them surrounded the building, crowded the corridors and beat upon the court room doors for admission.

An extra police guard was on hand and the women were driven, pushed and thrown back unceremoniously. The worst outbreak occurred as the prisoners were being driven to the jail. Several hundred frantic suffragettes, screaming with anger and disheveled by their strenuous efforts, made a concerted rush for the police wagon, in an effort to rescue the prisoners. Mounted police charged the mob and scattered it. A dozen women were injured in the scramble. Fourteen of the prisoners were sentenced to jail for from one to two months, the cases of the others being postponed. The women were given the choice of going to jail or promising to desist from similar outbreaks in the future. Without exception they chose the jail sentences. Government and police authorities are worried over the certainty of continued demonstrations.

COURTS TO FIX STATION SITE.

The District of Columbia Commissioners have ordered the corporation counsel to take steps to obtain a writ of mandamus to compel the Pennsylvania Railroad to fix the site of their substation near Seventh street and Maryland avenue southwest, the location provided for in the act of Congress authorizing the construction of the new Union station. The location of this site has been a bone of contention between the railroad and the commissioners' office for many months.

Virginia News.

Senator Martin and Congressman Carlin addressed a large audience at Manassas last night on the issues of the pending presidential campaign.

Rev. Landon R. Mason, of Richmond, was hurt slightly yesterday by the falling upon him of the horse which he was riding.

Maj. L. E. Morris, about 75 years old, died suddenly at his home in Fredericksburg yesterday. He was in the street in the afternoon walking with his wife. He formerly resided at Newport News.

Mrs. Alice M. Whiting, widow of Robert H. Whiting, died Monday night at her home, at Berryville, aged 60 years. She was the daughter of William H. Gold, of Frederick county, and was the oldest of 11 children.

The annual convention of the Virginia Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy convened at Manassas today. Many delegates to the convention arrived yesterday.

At the State Tent of the Knights of Maccabees, in session yesterday in Norfolk, the elected officers were G. A. Bladen, of this city, as State Commander, and J. J. Randall, of Manassas, State Sergeant. Charlottesville was named as the next place of meeting.

Fire originating in an unknown manner yesterday destroyed the four-story brick dwelling at 1427 east Main street, Richmond, occupied by J. H. Rose, damaged the two adjoining structures and entailed an aggregate loss of $60,000, partly due to water.

Miss Augusta Wade Thornton, daughter of Mrs. W. A. Thornton, formerly of Port Royal, and Mr. Wm. L. Emery, formerly of New Jersey, but now of Suffolk, were married at the residence of the bride's mother in Norfolk Monday, Rev. Mr. Owens, of St. Paul's Church, officiating.

A postoffice inspector visited the office at West End, Falls Church, Saturday and took possession owing to an alleged irregularity. The bondsmen of the postmaster have appointed Mrs. M. W. Saxton postmaster and she will conduct the office until an appointment is made by the department.

Mrs. Rosa Stone, of Myrtle, near Suffolk yesterday was given a $400 verdict against the Norfolk and Western Railroad for being compelled to ride seven miles in a "Jim Crow" car with negroes. She asked for 1,000. This is the only case of that sort ever tried in Virginia. The jury allowed her $40 a minute for actual riding time.

The board of trustees of the Odd Fellows' Orphanage and Old Folks' Home met in annual session in Lynchburg yesterday. All of the old officers were elected for another year. There are 103 children in the orphanage and three men and two women in the Old Folks' Home, wards of the grand lodge of Virginia.

Miss Emma L. Staubus, aged 44 years, of Staunton, took her own life by jumping into the city reservoir, where she was found shortly afterward. She was assistant housekeeper at the Mary Baldwin Seminary and had been connected with that institution for eighteen years. Ill health was the cause of the rash act. She was an orphan and leaves three brothers and a sister.

W. D. Langyher was cremated in his home near St. Edith's Academy, five miles west of Manassas, early yesterday, when his house, with entire contents, was destroyed by fire, originating, probably, from a defective flue. All the other occupants of the building escaped. Langyher had re-entered the burning structure to save some money and valuable papers in an upper room against the pleadings of his wife and children.

While traveling at a high rate of speed near Newmarket, Monday night, one of the tires of an automobile containing Mr. Hand, Mrs. Edward C. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Clark, all of Baltimore, burst, hurling the machine against a picket fence topped with barbed wire. The occupants of the car were cut by the sharp wire, and the machine was smashed to pieces. Mrs Wilson sustained a broken arm, while her husband was badly cut, Mrs. Clark was injured internally.

After the funeral the howitzers fired a brigadier's salute of eleven guns in honor of the dead.

Today's Telegraphic News

War Imminent.

London, Oct. 14.—Austria and Servia will surely go to war is the reported conclusion today of Foreign Minister Iswolsky of Russia, and Foreign Secretary Grey of England, who have been canvassing the Balkan situation since last Saturday.

Inability to satisfy the demands of Servia in the forthcoming international conference will be the rock on which the peace programme will split.

Austria has indicated that she will absolutely ignore Servia's demands for compensation, either in money or territory. She argues that as Servia was not a signatory to the treaty, the latter should have no voice in the conference.

Austria's stubbornness on this point is only matched by Servia's insistence, and diplomats here see no way of avoiding a rupture.

Turkey notified the Foreign Office today that she was ready for any move Bulgaria may make. She has completed the mobilization of her military forces and announces her ability to repel any invasion from Bulgaria.

Bulgaria has not yet issued an ultimatum to declare war in case Bulgarian independence is not recognized, according to today's dispatches, but Turkey is expecting it at any moment. When it is received the Porte will stand firmly by its former note to Bulgaria, that the independence of Bulgaria cannot now be recognized.

It is confidently believed that Turkey will agree to a recognition after the powers have indicated such a course of action.

Belgrade, Oct. 14.—King Peter of Servia is in imminent danger of assassination as the result of his refusal of the war party's demand to abdicate the throne in favor of Crown Prince George.

The hot-headed crown prince is in favor of leading an army against Austria and the vast majority of the Servians are in sympathy with him and are demanding that the king be deposed in his favor.

The king, backed by his ministry, has ignored the demands and open threats against his life are heard on all hands.

Constantinople, Oct. 14.—Reports from Salonica and Monastir today have convinced the Porte that Bulgaria is fomenting disorders in Macedonia to furnish an excuse for annexing Macedonia to the new "Bulgarian independency."

Bulgarian officers are organizing bands in both of these places and are supplying them with arms and bombs. Agents of Bulgaria are also in all the principal Macedonian towns attempting to work up an annexation sentement.

Turkey is convinced that Prince Ferdinand, the new "czar of Bulgaria," will delay a declaration of war for a few days in the hope that Turkey will take the initiative. If Turkey declines, it is felt certain here that Ferdinand will himself declare war.

Mine Disaster in Austria.

Vienna, Oct. 14.—Over 100 miners are reported to have been killed in an explosion and fire today in the Koenigs coal mine. No hope remains of rescuing any of the imprisoned miners, as the fire has shut off the work of rescue. Six charred bodies have been recovered, and their condition was such that it is certain they were burned rather killed by the explosion. It is believed that there are nearly 200 entombed in the mine and that they will all be burned to death.

Vienna, Oct. 14.—Death by suffocation and flames was the fate of between 150 and 200 miners today in a fire that is now burning in the big coal mines of Konigshutte, Silea. Great crowds of frantic friends and relatives of the miners surround the mouth of the mine. A number of the wives of the victims became uncontrollable from their grief and only restrained from entering the mine by armed persons.

Postoffice Attacked by Mob.

Jaffa, Palestine, Oct. 14.—The Austrian postoffice was today attacked by a mob, inspired by hatred of Austria for her late political movements. A number of mail wagons and letter boxes and a quantity of mail were destroyed. The Austrian mail steamship arrived today, but the mob would not allow the lightermen to unload until this afternoon. The mob was led by a number of anti-Austrian agitators, who harangued the people into action by inflammatory speeches.

Posse After Negro Assailant.

Cumberland, Md., Oct. 14.—A posse of infuriated men has gone to the mountains in pursuit of a negro who assaulted Miss Jennie Foreman near here this morning. Miss Foreman was accompanied by Miss Smith, a school teacher, when the negro attacked her. Miss Smith's cries drew men who were working in the fields near by and the negro became frightened and fled to the hills. If caught it is certain he will be lynched.

The British Fleet.

Smyrna, Oct. 14.—The British fleet that was dispatched from Malta on October 9 arrived at the Island of Paodes, off the southwestern coast of Asia Minor, today. The appearance of the fleet has caused great rejoicing throughout Turkey.

City Council.

There was a brief meeting of the City Council last night, although a comparatively large volume of business was transacted, most of which, however, was of a routine nature. The members of both boards were anxious to attend the public meeting at the Opera House, and debates were in a measure eliminated.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

There was a full attendance in the Board of Aldermen and the business presented caused no discussion.

After the transaction of some business of no general importance, Mr. Sweeney submitted sundry bills incurred by the health department in quarantining houses. They were referred to the finance committee. Mr. Sweeney also introduced a resolution appropriating $6,000 additional for street and sewer work, which was passed. He also introduced a resolution providing for the sale on December 2, 1908, of such city property upon which taxes were due June 1, 1908. The resolution was passed.

Mr. Brill introduced four resolutions referring certain recommendations made by Mayor Paff in his inaugural address to proper committees.

He withdrew the first—referring to the health department—at the instance of Mr. Ballenger, who suggested that the proper committee was considering this matter. The others—referring to the office hours of city officials, the investigation of the alms house and the street department were referred to appropriate committees.

The Aldermen concurred in the action of the Common Council on all the papers sent in.

When the roll was called on a resolution from the lower board appropriating $600 to grade and gutter Queen street from Fayette to Cameron Mr. Ballenger voted no, saying that Mr. Dunn was ready to spend money on the confines of the city, but was averse to any expenditure in some other quarters. [It was supposed he referred to the failure of Council recently to pass a resolution for the improvement of Oronoco street, between Pitt and St. Asaph.]

Mr. Birrill, from the Common Council, appeared in the chamber and announced that the lower board had finished its business and was ready to adjourn.

Mr. Summers asked if it had not been decided at the last meeting to hold an election for a police commissioner from the First ward.

It was suggested that the present commissioner could hold over until his successor was appointed; besides, the councilmen were anxious to adjourn in order to hear the speaking at the Opera House.

The board subsequently adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Notwithstanding the excitement of a democratic meeting at the Opera House and the further fact that a distinguished speaker was to address the voters 16 members of the Common Council, the entire membership, were present to take care of the interests of their constituents.

At the outset the president stated that the members of the body had been invited to participate in the political meeting to be addressed by Hon. H. St. Geo. Tucker at the Opera House. He said that Mr. Tucker was a distinguished Virginian and an able speaker, and if the members accepted the invitation they would enjoy a rare treat.

At this juncture Mr. Leadbeater, who had been absent during the summer, came before the desk and the oath of office was administered by the president.

The committee on streets recommended an appropriation of $100 for piping a gutter at Prince and Commerce streets, which was adopted.

They also recommended the appropriation of $1,800 to gravel and grade Alfred street from Prince to Wilkes.

Mr. Leadbeater spoke of the necessity for the repairs and referred to the street as being one of the main approaches to the cemeteries. He wanted to see the work finished before cold weather came.

The chair asked if the property owners along this street had agreed to pay their pro rata share of the improvements.

Mr. Leadbeater said this improvement would be a macadam street; only the gutters, and curbing were paid for by the property owners on such streets. On this street the curbing was already set.

The chair asked if the appropriation of $1,800 at one time for said improvements did not require an ordinance setting forth what part of the work should be paid for by the city.

Mr. Leadbeater said he did not think so. He cited other such improvements which had not required an ordinance and had been passed by simple resolution.

The chair stated that as the appropriation was for more than $1,000 it could not be acted on the night of its recommendation.

Mr. Leadbeater was of the opinion that council could act but the Board of Aldermen could not.

The chair then read a section of the code bearing on the question and said that this was the first report of the committee in a new council and was therefore new business.

Mr. Spinks did not think it new business.

The chair stated that he would entertain an appeal but none was asked and the matter went over under the rules till the next meeting.

The joint committee on public property and finance recommended the appropriation of $250 to improve the chamber of the Board of Aldermen, which was adopted.

Committee on public property also recommended the appropriation of $100 to repair and repaint the auditor's office, which was adopted.

Several petitions of citizens for repairing and rebuilding property were received and appropriately referred, an account of which will be seen in the official proceedings.

Mr. Spinks spoke of the condition of the Alms House property and of the report that the committee on poor had made in the last council. He said he knew the city was not in position to spend much money just now but he hoped the finance committee would take cognizance of his remarks.

Mr. Leadbeater, from the committee on streets, asked for an appropriation of $600 to grade, gravel and cobble gutter on Queen street from Fayette to Payne. He requested immediate action.

This brought Councilmen Evans and Spinks to their feet, who spoke of the condition of south Henry street and an amusing colloquy took place between these two gentlemen because of their having been born in the Fourth ward, but they claimed they had many friends in that neighborhood who had rights the city was bound to respect.

Mr. Leadbeater cited the fact that the gravel and sand to be used was furnished gratis to the city by the Washington-Southern Railway and the city could better afford to repair this street than any other at the present time.

Mr. Spinks in the course of a few remarks bearing on this subject said that he presumed that south Henry street was the property of the Southern Railway now and he, for one, expected very little of the company.

The appropriation of $600 was agreed to by a unanimous vote.

A petition from sundry citizens about the employment of foreigners on the street work was read and referred to the committee on streets and general laws.

Bills of $136 82 from Dr. Gorman of the board of health were referred to the finance committee.

The announcement of the special committee that the $5,000 appropriation for street and sewer work was exhausted and asking for $6,000 additional came in from the Board of Aldermen, that body having made the appropriation on the recommendation of the finance committee to which it had been referred. The matter went over under the rules.

The action of the Aldermen in referring to the finance committee a resolution directing the collector of taxes to sell at public auction all delinquent property on December 2, 1908, was concurred in.

The action of the board in referring to committee sections of the mayor's inaugural address bearing on the condition of the Alms House, the systematizing of the street department, fixing office hours for the city officials, etc. (all of which will be found in the proceedings of the Board of Aldermen), was concurred in.

The committee on public property recommended an appropriation of $100 to repair the treasurer's office and it was agreed to.

Nothing further appearing the board adjourned.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

The democratic rally at the Opera House last night was largely attended, both by ladies and voters. Decided enthusiasm was shown throughout the speaking, and each speaker was heartily applauded. On the stage were Messrs. J. R. Caton, E. E. Lawler, R. S. Barrett, J. M. Johnson, S. P. Fisher, Thos. S. Fisher, T. L. Risheill and others.

Mr. S. G. Brent, president of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club, opened the meeting with a few remarks in a humorous vein. He paid an eloquent tribute to the ladies. He said it was Roosevelt's policy to rule the people and not to allow the people to rule themselves. Mr. Brent stated that Mr. Taft had found fault with Mr. William Jennings Bryan (applause) for his support of the 16 to 1 standard. The speaker said he had not agreed with Mr. Bryan on that issue and had not voted for him at that time, but he now thanked God that no democrat could see any reason for not voting for the democratic leader. Mr Brent declared that President McKinley had been a free silverite, but owing to the influence of Senator T. C. Platt and Wall street had renounced his ideas and joined forces for the gold standard. The speaker declared that Mr. Bryan stood for every plank in the democratic platform and that he would undoubtedly be the next president. Mr. Brent explained the issues of free silver and gold. In introducing the next speaker Mr. Brent paid a just tribute to him as "a noble son of Virginia who had served his state unswervingly and one who had always found a welcome wherever he had spoken—Hon. Harry St George Tucker.

Amid an enthusiastic ovation Mr. Tucker arose and stated that he was glad to be in the old town of Alexandria again—not that everything was old, as the town had progressed very rapidly. He stated that he had come from the battleground of the state—southwest Virginia—where the democratic party had driven the foe to cover. He said he brought good cheer to the democrats of the city, as never before in the last twenty years had the prospects of a democratic victory in the Ninth district looked better. He said he hoped this city would give them every assistance in its power. He said the present campaign was being more earnestly contested than any had been for the last thirty years. He paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Bryan (whom, he said, he had sat by in Congress for over four years) as a statesman, stating that he was as pure as a woman and a splendid type of American citizen. He said that more than one had not believed in 16 to 1 in 1896. He had not believed in it while he was in Congress and soon afterwards he went home and had remained there since as a private citizen. He declared that Taft had invoked high tariff and was now for revision. He said Taft and Foraker a short time ago had sat at the same table in Toledo, like two doves, but that since then the president had said that to associate with Foraker would be to associate with evil and now both the republican presidential candidate and the party wanted nothing to do with Foraker. He said that Mr. Bryan stood on a platform that any of the republicans could not successfully assail and the democrats had now come together and would see that their candidate was elected. He stated that Mr. Bryan had been attacked for being against the trusts, but that now the republicans were claiming that they were against them. He asked the voters if they wanted an imitation article (Taft) or a genuine one (Bryan). He said the republicans in the last campaign were for a high tariff, but now they said they wanted it revised, as they declared in their platform for an unequivocal revision of the tariff at a special session of Congress immediately after the election of their nominee. He declared the republicans had used the party to further a private interest and he then dissected the republican platform piece by piece, showing the pitfalls and snares for the voters, and stated that the full dinner pail, of which the republican party had been so proud, was now very near empty. He paid a tribute to Representative John Sharp Williams, who had endeavored to reduce the tariff, but said that Speaker Cannon had failed to see either Mr. Williams or the bill. The speaker then argued on states' rights and declared that Roosevelt (Theodore I) was trying to usurp the rights of the states in furthering his own ideas. He said that under the tariff the steel trust was being so protected that they were selling rails in other countries $8 cheaper than they were in this country, and that the traveling man and people in general had to pay the difference in price. He said that in 1893, while in Congress, he was the author of a bill to wipe out every vestige of federal interference in state elections. He declared that were Taft elected he (Taft) would appoint Elihu Root as chief justice of the Supreme Court and appoint three other friends (marked T. R) as judges, so as to give the republican president more power to set aside states' rights and the constitution if necessary so as to make their rule more secure. He spoke of the Japanese school question in California and declared that the president had no right to interfere, as it was a question for the state to decide. He declared that in '61 the south had fought for states' rights and that when Gen. Lee surrendered the south had her cause won, as was afterwards shown. He closed with an appeal for everyone to vote for Bryan, Kern and Carlin.

The speeches throughout were vigorously applauded. Mr. Tucker spoke at times in a very humorous tread, reciting many anecdotes, and his speech was heartily enjoyed. He is a forceful speaker and always receives a warm welcome.

A drum corps of this city paraded the streets before the meeting and discoursed music in the Opera House.

More Bomb Throwing.

New York, Oct. 14.—A bomb hurled into the enclosure at Fifty-seventh street and Eighth avenue, where 250 taxicabs of the New York Taxicab Company are stored, exploded early today with terrific force, awakening the residents for blocks around but during little damage. The officials of the company declare it was an attempt of the striking chaffeuers to destroy the company's reserve machines.

Despite the strong police guard about the hotels and restaurants, another attack was made by the strikers and their friends last night upon the Victoria Hotel, Broadway and Twenty-seventh street. A large plate glass window was smashed with a missile thrown from a passing automobile.

Subscription to Campaign Fund.

New York, Oct. 14.—The list of subscribers to the democratic national campaign fund will be made public Thursday by National Treasurer Ridder. Charles Murphy, Tammany leader, is on the honor roll with a ten thousand dollar subscription. Chicago shows up well at the head of the list. The windy city's total contribution reaches well into the thousands. Prominent democrats throughout the United States each receive credit for substantial contributions.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

DETROIT SHUT OUT.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Chicago	3	1	.756
Detroit	1	3	.250

CHICAGO, 3; DETROIT, 0.

What must virtually be considered the deciding game of the world's series resulted in a shutout of the Detroits yesterday.

Impressive as has been the work of the Chicagos in the three former games, it was nothing compared to their playing yesterday afternoon. It is questionable whether any infield ever performed so sensat onally as did the Chicago quartet behind Mordecai Brown. What would ordinarily be considered a star play did not even bring forth a round of applause, because most of the plays were so sensational that the crowd sat aghast, marveling how it could be done.

Brown's pitching was strong enough to win, even with ordinary support, but with that infield turning all sorts of tricks, making one-hand pick-ups and turning seemingly certain base hits into outs, Brown was not compelled to over exert himself.

Brown's own fielding had much to do with the outcome of the game. In one inning, the fourth, O'Leary and Crawford hit safety before a hand was out, but Brown turned Cobb's perfect bunt along the third base line into a force out at third by one of the quickest plays ever made by a pitcher. There was no chance to get Cobb at first, but, picking the ball up while on the run, he turned, and without aim, hurled it to Steinfeldt, and O'Leary was out, and what promised to be an inning productive of runs resulted in a blank for the Detroits.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supple energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again.
